The Head Covering Bill.

Assembly Bill No. 45, "an Act to promote the pleasure of the people in public places of amusement," was introduced by Mr. Allen of Storey, and during its consideration in Committee of the Whole yesterday much fun and brilliant flashes of wit occurred. For the benefit of the lady readers of the Appeal the Bill is given for perusal:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any spectator in any place of amusement to wear a covering for the head which shall reach more than three inches above the crown of the head, and any person wearing such a covering for the head shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined in a sum not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars, or imprisonment in the County Jail not less than two days or more than five days; provided, that this Act shall not apply to women over thirty-five years of age.

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect on and after the twenty-fifth day of February, A. D., eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

—ANOTHER CHANCE.—The proposed change of time on the C. P. R. R., to take effect February 7th, will require numerous changes on our local road, and will prove as great an inconvenience to them and the Carson and Colorado as to the general public. Under the new card, our East-bound passenger train will leave Reno about 7 A. M., Carson at 8:25, arriving at Virginia at 9:50. West-bound will leave Virginia at 2:30 P. M. and Carson 4 o'clock, reaching Reno at 5:15 P. M. Supt. Yerington has telegraphed Supt. Fillmore of the C. P. R. R., asking if possible to make time at Reno at 6:40, to conform with old card, and which gave general satisfaction to the traveling public.

A Pleasant Resort. Members and Attaches of the Legislature and the other Winter sojourners at the Capital, can find no pleasanter place of resort for reading the latest papers and magazines and selecting popular books than at Cagwin and Noteware's corner store—diagonally opposite the B. & E. Bank on Carson street. Here can always be found all sorts of plain and fancy stationery and general office supplies; besides an endless variety of novelties.

A Hard Crowd. "Dot's de verst poty of men vat ever cooms to gadder here in Carson," said a Teutonic saloon keeper yesterday.

"How so?" "Last night four of 'em cooms to my place ant dey calls for karts. Dey puy a two-pit pack, and dey blays until dree o'clock, and never spends a kvarter. I purns more as a tollar's wort of gas, and dem karts costi me trendy cents."

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

—The dry cold weather of the early winter months is productive of a great deal of croup among children. Mothers should be on the lookout for it, and be prepared to arrest it as soon as the first symptoms appear. True croup never comes without a warning; a day or two before the attack the child will become hoarse, and that symptom is soon followed by a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as this hoarseness or rough appears, all danger and anxiety may be avoided. It has never failed, even in the most severe cases. There is no danger in giving the Remedy for it contains no injurious substance. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

GENERAL FILE.

Substitute for A. B. No. 29, the artesian well bill pays a bounty for sinking wells not to be closer than three miles apart; appropriates $10,000 for bounties.

During the discussion of this bill there was a spirited emulation among the members in the direction of amending the price for the successive distances between the one hundred foot marks. This threatened to turn into a series of arithmetical progression, but the thought seemed to strike the members that some one might start at the bottom if the temptation were great enough, and the progressive bounty was brought to a last term.

After many amendments, considered in Committee of the Whole.

During the deliberations of the Committee, the girls from the Virginia High School invaded the Assembly Chamber and the Artesian well bounty nearly lost its place on the statutes through the destruction of the members who seemed to forget all of Arts of State in contemplation of the youth beauty and common school education of the Commonwealth.

After each member had shown his interest in the young lady visitors by speaking more or less at random to the merits of artesian water gradually and the bill in particular, the Committee arose and recommended the passage of the bill.

The Assembly again in session ordered the bill engrossed.

A. B. No. 60; by Thompson—To provide for the storage of water. Referred to Committee on Internal Improvements.

Adjourned.

A SCRAP OF HISTORY.

The Examiner Editor's Failure to introduce Plug Hats in Reno.

The San Francisco Examiner, a leading society journal of San Francisco prints an editorial criticism on the prejudice against plug hats in the sagebrush.

He mentions an attempt to kill a man who attempted to sport a plug hat in Reno.

The man who was the butt of public indignation was Arthur McEwen, now of the Examiner and then of the Reno Gazette.

McEwen was fresh from the bogs of Galway and attempted to appear in the American plug hat in place of the Scotch cap with two feathers in the peak.

He wore his plug jammed on the back of his head and went tramping through the streets, like a long-legged escape from an asylum, frightening horses and children.

The people of Reno seeing that his crude method of wearing a beaver would bring discredit to the breeding of Nevada, with the tourists who went through on the trains, turned out en masse one day and began shooting at Mr. McEwen and those who had no guns did not wait to go home, but tramped on him they and there.

Mr. McEwen left town as soon as the Hospital authorities could give him an honorable discharge, and he has never forgotten the attempt on the part of the citizens of this State to compel him to wear an attire in keeping with his personal appearance.

There is as yet no well authenticated instance of a gentleman of good figure and proper decorum being interfered with his right to wear a plug hat in public in Nevada.

If he wears it on the back of his head or carries a brick in it, the public regard for the proprieties of life is at once aroused, and when once up is hard to quell with the ordinary police appliances of this section.

Homicide on the Owyhee.

A correspondent of the Silver State writing from Jordan Valley says that on Sunday morning January 20th, a quarrel took place at a sheep camp three miles below the ferry, at the crossing of the Winnemucca road on the Owyhee, between W. J. Hughes and N. O. Nelson, which resulted in the killing of the latter. Mr. Hughes is in Jordan Valley in charge of Deputy Sheriff Hicks and tells a straight story which the people seem disposed to believe. He says Nelson charged upon him with a knife just as he was starting out with the sheep, and to save his own life, he fired at him with a shot gun, which he was taking out with him as was his custom.

Nelson was a Sweed, unmarried, between twenty-five and thirty years of age and Hughes is 66 years old. He was to have had a hearing before Justice Athearn last Saturday.—Silver State.
